

BICS grassroots soccer excellence program

Brantford Inter-City soccer (BICS) invites parents of girls born in 1999 and 2000 to register their children for the BICS grassroots soccer excellence program.

This is an early identification camp where girls age under 9 and under 10 will be selected for further training at an elite level.

All sessions will take place at Agnes Hodge public school located at 52 Clench Avenue, Brantford.
